

MOATENDEN

TUNBRIDGE WELLS

Moatenden is a collection of five luxury family homes set around a landscaped courtyard garden, with a nature pond, secure parking and generous gardens that border the Kentish Green Belt. The two detached houses, two semi-detached properties and a detached bungalow offer a rare opportunity to live in some of Royal Tunbridge Wells's finest countryside.

Moatenden affords the utmost seclusion, accessed via a private driveway and screened from its country lane setting by dense hedgerows and mature trees. Here, the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty provides an awe-inspiring backdrop, with unobstructed panoramic views thanks to the natural ridge topography.

The countryside you crave

While Tunbridge Wells, Tonbridge and Southborough are all within touching distance – the latter’s amenities are a 15-minute walk away – Moatenden is an oasis of countryside calm.

Fields, hedgerows and working farmland surround the new homes, providing habitats for a rich vein of native wildlife. Here you’ll find the peace needed to observe birds of prey or simply listen to the dawn chorus as the sun rises.

Just beyond Moatenden is a landscape that beautifully reflects the seasons. The broad ridges, verdant valleys, ancient woodlands and bubbling streams of the Southborough environs are ever changing, and provide a buffer between home and some of the most comprehensive facilities in Kent.

The views are always enticing so why not take a step further into the Garden of England? Pack a picnic, pull on your walking boots and get to know the place you now call home. Choose from a number of public footpaths close to Moatenden and walk with family, friends or just with the simple sounds of farming life. The four-mile Southborough Walk is one of the best places to start. Explore at your own pace, admiring the views of the Medway Valley, the Greensand Ridge and the North Downs.

Semi-rural yet sustainable

Southborough is a sustainable town with shops, cafés, bars and restaurants serving local residents. In addition is Southborough Hub - the town's new state-of-the-art focal point, which brings together a medical centre, pharmacy, library, community space, sports pavilion and town square.

Southborough is also a location full of hidden gems. Southborough Common is probably the area's best kept secret, with almost 76 acres of open space tucked away behind the landmark St. Peter's Church. Here you can step away from the hubbub and find a new connection with nature among the woodlands, grasslands, heathlands and watercourses.

Now not such a secret, thanks to a glowing review in The Guardian by acclaimed food writer, Grace Dent, is Tallow restaurant. This atmospheric venue is located almost on the boundary of Southborough Cricket Club and has become the food critics's restaurant of choice in Kent.

As well as a burgeoning gourmet scene, Southborough is also known for being within walking distance of some of Kent's best faith and selective secondary schools, including The Skinners School, Tunbridge Wells Grammar School for Boys, Bennett Memorial and Tunbridge Wells Girls' Grammar School.

Spoilt for shopping, leisure & social choices

The holy trinity of the Kentish Weald - Tunbridge Wells, Tonbridge and Sevenoaks – are close neighbours of Southborough. All three enjoy exceptional connectivity to London by rail and are located close to major road links, including the A21 and the M25.

The spa town of Tunbridge Wells is home to The Pantiles, where boutiques, bars and restaurants create an upscale social hotspot. There's also a theatre, shopping complex, traditional High Street, leisure centre and Dunorlan Park - the latter comprising 78 acres of parkland, Victorian gardens and a boating lake.

Sevenoaks retains its status as a premium market town, with a bustling High Street, a plethora of sports clubs, The Stag Cinema, Theatre & Community Arts Centre, The Space performing arts centre and the Kaleidoscope Gallery. The town's 'gatekeeper' landmark is the majestic Knole House & Gardens, with the highly rated Sevenoaks School close by.

Tonbridge is steeped in history, with its medieval motte and bailey castle presiding over Tudor buildings and the River Medway. Another centre of educational excellence, the town is home to Tonbridge School, The Judd School and Tonbridge Grammar School for Girls. A stroll along the High Street quickly reveals a burgeoning international cuisine and café culture – a place where ambitious chefs, bakers and baristas hone their skills.
