Southborough Location

The town of Southborough lies just a couple of miles south of Royal Tunbridge Wells and north is the vibrant town of Tonbridge, both of which have rail services to London, the more popular and frequent station being Tonbridge approx 33 minutes. If you are travelling by car, the A21 can be accessed a mile away in the direction of Tonbridge, which in turn gives access to the M25 and the national motorway network, Gatwick and Heathrow airports and the Channel Tunnel terminus. Southborough itself offers a number of local shops and cafes with nearby Tonbridge & Tunbridge Wells providing a more comprehensive shopping with Victoria Place and the High Street and Business parks near by, as well as independent clothes and furniture shops. The ever popular Pantiles is also a main attraction in Tunbridge Wells as is the River and Castle in Tonbridge. Locally There is the benefit of excellent schools in both then private and state sector for all levels making this a great place to raise a family.
