In summary, this enchanting property on Barden Road is not just a house; it is a lifestyle choice, offering peace, space, and the potential for future development in a highly sought-after area. Do not miss the chance to make this stunning home your own.

Bidborough

Brockhill is superbly situated on a private driveway on the outskirts of Bidborough where there is a well stocked village shop, the garage, the historic village church, parts of which date back to the 10th century, and the popular local Kentish Hare pub and restaurant which prides itself on a menu that showcases the best of Kentish produce. There is a distinct sense of community in Bidborough which is reflected in the local societies which include among many, the gardening society and the dramatic society, all of which gather at the local village hall. The village is also conveniently located for easy access to Tonbridge and Tunbridge Wells town centres situated 3 and 5 miles distant respectively, both of which offer a wide range of shopping and leisure facilities, cafes, bars and restaurants. There are a number of well regarded schools in the area, with Bidborough Primary school on the doorstep, and a range of preparatory, public and grammar schools in the surrounding areas. The area benefits from a number of local golf courses at Tonbridge, Tunbridge Wells, Hever and Hildenborough, and leisure amenities in Bidborough include Tennis Courts and a Bowling Green. There are frequent bus services from the village, and both Tonbridge and Tunbridge Wells have train stations offering fast and frequent services to London and the South Coast. There is also easy access to the A21 dual carriageway which offers a direct link onto the M25 London Orbital motorway.
