To Be Sold

Jack Charles are delighted to offer this substantial and deceptively spacious period home, enviably positioned in the very heart of Waterringbury, just moments from the mainline station and well regarded local schools.

Once known as The Family Butchers Shop, the property still echoes its heritage, retaining elements of its original character that add warmth and individuality. Today it offers generous and remarkably adaptable accommodation, comprising a sizeable double fronted 6 bedroom main house arranged over three floors plus a basement cellar, together with a large detached one bedroom annexe to the rear. The configuration presents an exciting opportunity for multi generational living, those seeking independent space, or potential investment or house of multiple occupation, subject to the necessary consents.

The ground floor welcomes you via either the front or rear entrances, from the rear lobby there are doors to a cloakroom and inner hall, leading through to a utility room, spacious kitchen with breakfast and dining area, perfectly suited to modern family life. A separate reception room provides flexibility as either a formal dining room or an additional sitting room while there is further space in the vast cellar that could also be utilised as a workshop or such like. The upper floors deliver an impressive number of bedrooms and reception spaces, easily reconfigured to suit evolving needs, with scope to create further bathrooms or en suite facilities if required.

To the rear, the detached annexe is thoughtfully arranged with its own entrance hall, kitchen, lounge / dining room opening onto a decked seating terrace, along with a shower room to the ground floor and a bedroom with cloakroom to the first floor with plenty of storage. The annexe is rated separately with a council tax banding B, it offers ideal accommodation for extended family, guests or independent living, including providing an additional income.

Externally, there is substantial parking area between the two properties, and a rear garden that could be landscaped to provide a wonderful private area to complete this highly versatile and rarely available village home, offering space, flexibility and future potential in equal measure. Viewings are recommended.
